'A WOMAN'S WORLD' CELEBRATES DEEDS, IDEAS AND ALTERNATIVES

DAYTON, Ohio — "A Woman's World," a one-woman show that celebrates the visions, wit and wisdom of women from Sojourner Truth to Lena Horne, will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 2, in the Kennedy Union Boll Theatre at the University of Dayton.

Admission to the program, which is part of UD's "Focus on Women: Women Creating Culture" course, is free and open to the public.

Actor Elizabeth Hodes of New York City will use songs, stories, poetry and dance to tell the visions of women such as Edna St. Vincent Millay, Isadora Duncan and Holly Near. The program celebrates women's powers and contemplates choices and challenges.

All "Focus on Women" course sessions are free and open to the public and, unless otherwise noted, are held in St. Joseph Hall Room 231 from 5:50 to 8:25 p.m. Sessions include "African-American Women's Culture" on Jan. 26, "Lesbian Culture" on Feb. 9, "Women's Gift to Ministry — the Nun's Story" on Feb. 16, "Unseen: Women Artists" and "Unsung: Women Composers" in the Sears Recital Hall in the Jesse Philips Humanities Center on Feb. 23 and "Women and Medicine" on March 2.

For more information, call UD's women's studies program at (513) 229-4285.
